

APPENDIX D

Resources and Products Developed With Grant Funds

A Guide for the Nonprofessional Provider of Supervised Visitation (English and Spanish)

Developed by/Author: Center for Families, Children & the Courts and Superior Court of Orange County

An “answers to questions” booklet for non-professional providers of supervised visitation.

A Guide for the Nonprofessional Provider of Supervised Visitation (Persian, Korean, Chinese, Russian, Vietnamese)

Developed by/Author: Superior Court of Orange County and Superior Court Los Angeles County

Translated by the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, this booklet (developed by the Superior Court of Orange County) provides answers to questions for non-professional providers of supervised visitation.

For Our Children — Helping Parents Help Their Kids

Developed by/Author: Jane Ellen Shatz and Alyce LaViolette

A 12 week curriculum for never-married, separated, or divorced parents where domestic violence has been an issue.

Fresno’s Mobile PowerPoint Presentation on Supervised Visitation

Developed by/Author: Family Access and Visitation Grant Program, Superior Court of Fresno County

A mobile, multi-media PowerPoint parent education program (on CD-ROM) with information on the process of supervised visitation.

High-Conflict Parenting Program

Developed by/Author: Superior Court of Contra Costa County, Family Court Services

A high-conflict parenting curriculum.

Orange County Monitored Exchange Brochure and Training Video (English and Spanish)

Developed by/Author: Superior Court of Orange County

Developed by the Superior Court of Orange County, a brochure and a training video that provide information on the process of monitored exchange.

Orientation Handbook for Nonprofessional Supervisors

Developed by/Author: Contra Costa County Family Court Services

Orientation handbook for nonprofessional supervised visitation supervisors.

Parenting Apart Curriculum

Developed by/Author: Family Enhancement Services, Mendocino Family and Youth Services

Curriculum materials for Parenting Apart workshops for families in transition.

This program was developed to help separating parents understand the needs of their children before, during, and after separation or divorce.

S.A.F.E. (Safe Access and Friendly Exchanges) for Kids Program Policies and Procedure Manual

Developed by/Author: Superior Court of Los Angeles County, Family Court Services

A Policies and Procedure Manual for the SAFE For Kids program.

S.A.F.E Watch Access to Visitation — Supervised Child Visitation and Exchange Workshop Training Binder

Developed by/Author: Superior Court of Fresno County, Family Court Services

A binder of training materials developed by the Safe Watch Access to Visitation Program for its supervised child visitation and exchanged workshop.

Standards of Practice for Professional Providers of Supervised Visitation

Developed by/Author: Superior Court of Orange County

A booklet that describes the responsibilities, duties, and obligations of providers pursuant to the Uniform Standards of Practice for Providers of Supervised Visitation.

Supervised Visitation and You

Developed by/Author: Center for Families, Children & the Courts and Superior Court of Orange County

An informational brochure with questions and answers for parents regarding supervised visitation.